KATE KEARNEY

A Celebrated Irish Song.

NEW YORK Published by Firth & Hall, No 1, Franklin Square.

The sheet music consists of six staves of musical notation for piano or voice. The first three staves begin in common time (indicated by a 'C') and then switch to 3/4 time. The key signature changes between G major (two sharps) and C major (no sharps or flats). The lyrics are integrated into the musical staves:

have you not heard of Kate Kearney, She lives on the banks of Killarney, From the glance of her eye, Shun danger and fly, For fatal's the glance of Kate Kearney.

Her

A handwritten musical score for two voices and piano. The top system consists of two staves: a soprano staff with lyrics and a basso continuo staff with bass notes. The lyrics describe a woman's eyes as modestly beaming and full of mischief. The bottom system also has two staves: a soprano staff with lyrics about a fatal spell lurking in the eye of Kate Kearney, and a basso continuo staff. The music is written in common time with various note heads and rests.

Then should you e'er meet this Kate Kearney,
Who lives on the banks of Killarney,

Beware of her smile,

For many a guile

Lies hid in the eye of Kate Kearney, PUBLIC LIBRARY

Tho' she looks so bewitchingly simple,
There's mischief in every dimple,

And who dares inhale

Her sighs spicy gale,

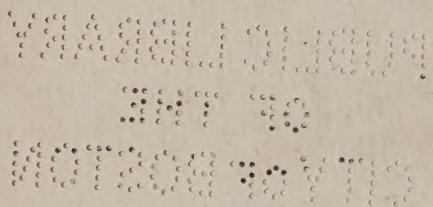

Must die by the breath of Kate Kearney.

Bend Death Roll.

Adjt. Edward B. Wadsworth, accompanied by two drummers and a bugler, marched to the open space in front of the pulpit and read impressively, while the drums were beaten gently, the following death roll: Sergt. David O. Clark, admitted May 11, 1868; died June 11, 1884; Loriston C. Durkee, admitted Sept. 24, 1877, died Aug. 6, 1894; Hon. and Maj. Nathaniel P. Banks, admitted April 1859, died Sept. 1, 1894; Lieut. Geo. R. Spaulding, admitted Sept. 24, 1877, died Sept. 11, 1894; J. B. Maynard, admitted Sept. 22, 1862, died Sept. 29, 1894; Hon. and Lieut. SECOND LIEUT. A. E. LOCKHART.

Second Lieut. Albert E. Lockhart was born on the 12th of March, 1861, and was educated in the Cambridge public schools. He is general manager and a partner of the firm of W. L. Lockhart & Co., manufacturers of castings, in which business he was also engaged in San Francisco from 1860 to 1871. He is very prominent in mystic orders. Is a 32d degree Mason, Noble of Alceo Temple, Mystic Shrine, an Odd Fellow, charter member of Boston Lodge of Elks, also of the Knights of Honor, Knights and Ladies of Honor, the New England Order of Protection, and numerous clubs. He is a very pleasant and affable gentleman.

knowing that the list of toasts is quite long, and the gentlemen to respond very eloquent; I am sure that you will be vastly more entertained by the speeches to follow than by anything further I might say. The Commander called on Adj't. Wadsworth, who gave as the first regular toast, "The President of the United States of America," to which Collector Warren responded, saying:

"My answer is trust your leaders. If you find a President standing firm as a rock for national integrity, strengthen his hands and be slow of criticism. If you find a Secretary of the Treasury courageously carrying the war into the heart of the silver camp, give him your applause, and confidence. Measure no man by party in such matters, but, when you find Sherman and Edmunds, and Warner and Walker and Harten, all enlisted in the same fight, remember it is your fight, and though you may differ in details, give credit where credit is due.

We have recently had a solemn warning as to the danger of hasty vituperation and partisan criticism in the early death at his post of duty of the Secretary of State, when all now honor for his fearlessness, integrity, his able and conscientious service to the State and his pure character, though no man received more unsparing and hasty criticism.

Let us do justice to men while they live, and not wait till the grave closes over them.

Gov. Greenhalge.

The Governor was received with rounds of cheers as he rose to speak. "I rejoice that I have been permitted to march once more under your banner. (Hear! Hear!) I like to march over the crowded streets to the church and from the church to this historic hall. I like also to meet the representatives of the United States and the representatives of these companies from other States, and bring to them in the name of the Commonwealth a hearty and a cordial welcome. I liked at the church and was deeply impressed by the significant and telling ceremony performed. As you listened to the words of Mr. Browne, remember that Massachusetts throughout blew "Taps." Another bugler in the rear vestibule responded vigorously yet sweetly, and then from the distance came the echo, faint but clear and of affecting sweetness. Subsequently Mr. Berle offered prayer. Miss Clark and the chorus sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Then the sermon was preached by Rev. Percy Browne.

Rev. Percy Browne took for his text "A citizen of no mean city," Acts xxi, 39. After congratulating the Ancients upon the laurels achieved during their more than two centuries of honorable existence, the preacher took up the argument for a greater Boston, not alone in the materialistic view, but greater in its opportunities for higher manhood.

After the sermon the double quartet sang the ode, which Rev. Edward A. Horning

The Emperor Will Not Visit Any French Warship.

Czar's Representative Very Pleasanting to German Ruler.

Was Then That the New Tariff Went into Effect—Supreme Court Decision.

Washington, June 3.—The Tariff act of 1894, according to the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, annulled today in the case of the United States v. Burr and Hardwicke, went into effect Aug. 28, 1894, the date it was promulgated by the State Department as a law throughout the President's signature, and not until the 1st of August, the date named in the bill itself for taking effect.

SATISFACTORY DECISION.

Washington, June 3.—Treasury officials were gratified by the decision of the United States Supreme Court that the new Tariff act of 1894 took effect August 28, 1894, the day of its promulgation, and not August 1, the date named in the body of the act. This upplies matters much, as all the collections have been made on the basis now submitted by the court's decisions. Had the tariff held otherwise, protests of numerous importers, involving about $90,000 in amount, who claimed that the new law took effect Aug. 1, would have had to be acted upon and refunds made. These protests will now be simply dismissed and the work of collection will proceed smoothly.

DRUCCISTS' LAW.

Preme Court Affirms Judgment of Connecticut Courts Respecting It.

Washington, June 3.—In an opinion read by Justice Field, the Supreme Court affirmed the United States affirming the judgment of the Connecticut Courts, sustaining the law requiring druggists desiring to practice in the dispensing of prescriptions, to procure a license therefrom. Mason P. Gray, attorney for the State Constitution by the imposition of fines, and the judgment was, therefore, affirmed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STANDARD SILVER DOLLARS.

Washington, June 3.—The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints and Treasury for the week ended June 1 was $396,000, and for the corresponding period last year was $331,910. The shipment of fractional silver coins for the month of May was $396,46, and for the corresponding period last year was $764,395.75, and for June 1 was $25,550.

CARLISLE BACK.

Washington, June 3.—Secretary Carlisle has been recalled to Washington by the President, having been absent since June 1.

Berlin, June 3.—The semi-official denial here of the statement which originated in Paris that the Kaiser intended to go on board the French war ship Hoche while at war ship. If it has ever been the intention of the Emperor to visit the foreign vessels while at Kiel, which is not at all probable, that idea has been abandoned, and it may be safely asserted that he will not go on board any of them.

The Grand Duke Alexis, whose presence at the fêtes as the representative of the Czar is especially gratifying to the Kaiser, will be the bearer of an autograph letter of congratulation from Nicholas III, and will be received by the Emperor in special audience upon his arrival at Kiel. The fact that the Grand Duke comes to Kiel by rail instead of arriving there on board a Russian war ship, he being the Premier Admiral and Commander-in-Chief of the Russian navy, has been attributed to an agreement between France and Russia, in regard to the size and number of the vessels which those Powers will contribute to the naval display on the occasion, though it cannot be ascertained from any official or reliable source that such an agreement exists. The arrival of the Grand Duke Alexis on board his flagship, it is assumed, would imply as his arrival by rail, merely as the representative of the Czar and not in his capacity as Grand Admiral of the Russian fleet, would not necessitate any great naval display on the part of Russia. The view taken here is that the Czar sends Alexis to Kiel merely to mark his personal friendship for the Kaiser.

The Neustadt Nachrichten, a Bismarckian organ, declares that the Grand Duke Alexis was designated to be present at the Kiel festival for the reason that representative members of the royal houses of England, Austria and Italy will be in attendance. The Duke of York is expected to arrive at Hamburg on June 18 on board the royal yacht Osborne. He will be personally received by the Emperor King Oscar of Sweden and Norway will arrive on board his yacht Drott.

STRICT POLITENESS ONLY.

New York, June 3.—A Herald's special cable from Berlin says: With regard to the forthcoming visit by French war ships to New York, the special agents of the German officials have been instructed to observe strict politeness and etiquette, but to do nothing more.

Evidence That the Mormons Are Determined Not to Relinquish the Practice of Polygamy.

MORMON DUPLEXITY.

Minneapolis, June 3.—A story that comes from Uinta county, Wyoming, indicates that the Mormons do not intend to give up practical polygamy without a struggle, even though they have surrendered it theoretically. The county borders on Utah and has a large Mormon population, many of whom are still living with plural wives.

A Gentle made a complaint to the County Attorney against one of them; the Attorney refused to prosecute, although he admitted that he knew the complainant to be true. Thereupon the Mormons ordered the complaining Gentle to leave the country under penalty of being hanged if he remained. But the Gentle mob was clear grit. He stood off the Mormon mob that attacked him, and now the Gentle neighbors have banded together for self-defence.

"This incident may be an intimation of what may happen in Utah when the State seizes admission to the Union. It is hardly probable that the lives of Gentiles will be safe in the strong Mormon counties if parts of the State tell of good rains Saturday night and yesterday, which, in addition to the showers of last week, place the ground in the best condition it has been for several years. A dispatch from Nelson states that Saturday night's rain was so great was the fall of water that the streets ran like rivers, and several feet of railroad track were washed away.

WEST KANSAS UNDER WATER.

Train Abandoned and Washouts in All Directions.

Denver, Col., June 3.—Western Kansas is under water, and opinions differ as to the unreal damage or value of such a visitation at this time. Rock Island trains for the East from Denver were abandoned last night.

Washouts are reported at all points West and far into Colorado, making travel highly hazardous in the night time.

From Goodland, Kan., comes a statement that the entire country is under water, and traffic of every description is stopped by the storm.

CROPS DESTROYED.

Galveston, Texas, June 3.—News has been received of a severe hall storm at Paint Rock, Church county. The stones were unusually large. Many sheep were killed and crops were destroyed.

GREATEST RAINFALL IN YEARS.

Denison, Texas, June 3.—A terrific rain-storm prevailed in this section and the Indian Territory Friday. It was the greatest rainfall in years. Large streams overran their banks, and many washouts occurred on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway. All trains were badly delayed.

ONE DEAD, TWO DYING.

Houston, Texas, June 3.—During a trial in a Justice Court at Snyder Springs, Van Zandt county, on Saturday, the principals in the case engaged in a duel with pistols.

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

Six Witnesses for the State Examined in the West Lebanon Case.

Alfred, Me., June 3.—Six witnesses for the State were examined today in the trial of the West Lebanon arson case. Selectman Horace Horn, Nathaniel J. Kenney and John S. P. Jones, testified that a month before the burning of the town buildings, Dr.

Wm. W. Webber had presented several bills and on the board's refusal to allow three of them, he was angry, and threatened to get even with the town.

A few days after the fire Dr. Webber produced a handkerchief and empty paint bottle which he claimed to have found near the ruins. These were first regarded as important clues, but later a detective had worked on the case a short time Dr. Webber admitted that the story about the find of the can and handkerchief was a falsification, concocted so as to hinder the investigation, he hoping to discover the guilty person and secure the reward.

General Election

Features.

Money was a little better taken up at the end of a trifling improvement regarded as side activity. But there is no change in rates and, as operators from time to time, also aloft from it.

As has happened in those mills, those shares moved the rest of the list, contained in the list, obtained in the sale of a provision paid for, cause the payment of a new amount that failed to meet, though it is by means certain among them.

Boston banks and trust companies have no prospect of a near change between $300,000 and $400,000 of the bonds being suspended United States Corrugate Company. The plan proposed for the reorganization of that corporation does not meet, though it is by means certain among them.

Gossip reported for the Vanderbilts as having received control of the New England and New York companies, their course of action is the value of the property of the mortgagors. Statement is now back of the mills, supposed to be back of the mortgagee, but only partially paid for, because the property will oppose it and enforce it.

The joint which will decide the fate of the mills, suspended United States Corrugate Company, is now deposited with the Peoria Organization Committee. May receipts at the Chicago Stock Exchange, its old Board of Directors and officers.

Stock Exchange, the company before doing anything, will be included. Bondholders, therefore, will be examined.

The company before doing anything, will be sold under foreclosure, and if its assets were to be included, Boston mills could not be examined.

The company before doing anything, will be examined.
